

Francesca Sandrolini

Partner

Francesca Sandrolini began working with Studio De Leo Professional Association in 1993, where she is now a partner.

She has acquired solid professional experience in corporate and tax law and in the area of financial statements and consolidated financial statements, accounting policies, including international ones, as well as in-depth work related to banks and financial intermediaries.

Her work in the firm involves dealing with bank balances, issues concerning governance, as well as activities carried out by statutory auditors in major banking groups.

She has been involved in transactions relating to financial holding companies and investment and private equity groups.

She provides consultancy primarily on corporate, tax and accounting matters, provides assistance in preparing financial and consolidated statements, during which she has been able to develop an in-depth understanding of financial statements and reporting on foreign companies and subsidiaries of foreign companies, including listed companies. She also provides assistance in tax assessment and litigation.

As well as this, she deals with technical advice and assistance during periods of crisis within companies through extrajudicial instruments, focusing on recovery plans for the business (certificated plan and debt restructuring agreements).

She serves as an Auditor in various industrial and commercial companies and in Italian holding companies, including listed companies belonging to international groups. She has held the office of auditor in several multinational groups.
